1. The first of the two former PT base camps situated on the Luckenwalde (N 53/2 70)-Frankenfoerde road, was the former Stalag 3a which was torn down between 2 and 9 October 1950; the other camp, formerly Camp Semmon, quartered officers attending officer training courses.
2. On 3 October 1950 about 600 officers wearing tank insignia arrived with the Berlin-Jueterbog local freight train, riding coaches which, according to a railroadman, had been coupled to the train in Trebbin. The officers were quartered in Camp Semmon. They received their theoretical instruction at the army headquarters on Luckauerstrasse, in an auditorium seating about 2,000 persons, and their field training and arms training allegedly at the Jueterbog troop training grounds. Only light infantry weapons were seen in Camp Semmon. *
3. On 2 October 1950 about 250 soldiers of the four guard companies previously quartered in Camp Semmon boarded a train and left toward Jueterbog, and about 150 soldiers were transferred to the Schuetzenhaus (riflemen's association clubhouse) bringing the guard troops of the Luckenwalde post, who were quartered there, to a total of 350 men. **
